

CMFT Nursing Lecture Series 2016

A showcase of leading clinical nursing research that shares the latest evidence to promote quality care and safe practice

Preventing patient falls: Trickier than running a nuclear power station?

Thursday 14th July 2016

2:30-4pm, Lecture Theatre, Postgraduate Education
Centre, Manchester Royal Infirmary, Oxford Road, M13
9WL

Dr Frances Healey, Head of Patient
Safety Insight, Patient Safety Domain,
Nursing Directorate, NHS England

Dr Healey will reflect in this lecture on inpatient falls, wider patient safety thinking and measurement

For more information or to book a place, contact:

Tim Twelvetree on 0161 306 7879 or
(timothy.twelvetree@manchester.ac.uk)

